Easter Vigil Service – April 15

Commit to attending the 6:30 p.m. Service on Holy Saturday called the Easter Vigil, which is actually our first Easter service.

The Easter Vigil is one of the oldest, most unique of all Christian liturgies (definitely NOT "same ol', same ol'). In it we hear key Old Testament passages, waiting like the ancient people of God as they waited for the fulfillment of the promises. We wait in physical darkness as they waiting in spiritual darkness for God's faithfulness. But then breaks in the light and the glory, as "Christ is risen" breaks out and we celebrate the first remembrance of Christ's resurrection. It is a candlelight service, it may include baptism and will include the Eucharist. The Easter Vigil involves all of our senses and is very moving.

One of the fathers of the church, Chrysostom, issued an Easter proclamation that began with these words:

"Are there any who are devout lovers of God? Let them enjoy this beautiful bright festival! Are there any who are grateful servants? Let them rejoice and enter into the joy of their Lord! Are there any weary with fasting? Let them now receive their wages!"

The celebration of Christ's passion and resurrection is worthy of our time for it is the center of our faith and joy. Join us during Holy Week for as many of the services as you are able—and bring a friend!

Candidates (both infant and adult) for Holy Baptism at our Easter Vigil should immediately contact pastor or the church office to make arrangements.

Potluck Easter Breakfast

Each Easter we have a wonderful breakfast between the services. As always volunteers are needed to help out and bring the food, especially with clean up. The Easter Breakfast will start at 9 a.m. on Easter Sunday. It will be a potluck again. Please sign up on the office door. There are a lot of options to sign up for so please help out.

Easter Egg Hunt

Once again there will be an Easter Egg Hunt on Easter Sunday after the breakfast at 9:45 a.m.

Things to Watch for During Easter

We've celebrated a good Lent and used the 40 days to prepare. We've celebrated Holy Week as a time to walk with Christ in His passion. Now it is Easter, a Pentecost ("fifty") day celebration of new life.

Notice the color on the altar and pastor's stole is white reflecting the heavenly glory of Christ and summoning us to joy. The paschal candle is lit during all the services of Easter. It reminds us of the pillar of fire that led the Israelites through the Red Sea and He who led us out of death in the waters of Baptism. (In some congregations water is kept in the baptismal font during this season so people may visit the waters from which our life springs). The living flowers that adorn the chancel speak of that same life in Christ. The celebration of Holy Communion is yet another mark of the paschal (Easter) celebration. The new Passover which brings us a potent medicine of immortality in the holy Body and Blood of the Christ is offered to us by the Savior Himself through his called minister.

Easter Bunny: Are You For Real?

OK, I didn't come up with the title. Author Harold Myra penned some books to answer his own children's questions about Christian holidays and celebrations and how Santa Claus or the Easter bunny fit into the picture. In case you haven't read the book, "Easter Bunny; Are You For Real," allow me to give you my abridged version:

"Michelle's" kindergarten class is making a large Easter bunny out of paper mache. When her little brother, Greg, sees their comical creation he exclaims "naughty!" Greg is too young to explain, so their father asks Michelle what he meant by the outburst. Michelle recalls that at church "someone said that it's a shame the way kids get all excited about the Easter bunny." When Michelle's other brother, Todd, says that he likes the Easter bunny Michelle asks her father, "Daddy, how'd the Easter bunny get into Easter anyhow?"

Their father sits down to tell the children about the tradition. "Let's go back to the beginning...back to Jesus' friends just before Easter. They had seen Jesus grabbed by soldiers. They saw him killed on the cross, then buried. All their dreams were gone. What a terrible day! Jesus was dead." "But three days later—that first Easter dawn—Jesus broke out of his grave. He was alive again! He walked and talked with his friends. He ate with them. 'See my hands and my feet,' Jesus told them. 'It is I, Touch me and see!'" "His disciples suddenly knew everything was different. Jesus would live forever. And they would too! Now they knew death was the beginning, not the end."

"But why did Jesus let those bad guys kill him in the first place?" Todd asked, "Especially if he's so powerful."

Dad explains. "Jesus could have destroyed them. But they were people he came to save. All of us are 'bad guys,' you know—we've all disobeyed God. But Jesus died and rose again so God would forgive us—so we could live forever with him."

Michelle persists. "But where'd the Easter bunny come in?"

Dad continues: "While the early Christians celebrated Easter, others were celebrating springtime. After a cold, dark winter, people were glad to see new leaves and flowers, and animals having babies—kittens and chicks and foals—and, yes, bunnies. Rabbit stories just grew out of that. Like the old story from Germany in which a poor woman put colored eggs in a nest. Just as her children discovered them, a rabbit leaped away. Soon kids said that the rabbit had brought the eggs. Even today, people are making up new stories about the Easter bunny."

"You mean," asked Michelle, "the Easter bunny has nothing to do with the real Easter?"

"That's right," said Dad, "He's part of celebrating spring—but that's all. Spring is nature coming back to life again—it's God's picture of Jesus rising from the dead."

Their mother calls from the kitchen where she is hard boiling some eggs to color. "Where do the eggs come in?"

"For the 40 days before Easter (what we call Lent) early Christians used to fast as they remembered Christ's sufferings. Fasting reminds us of dying with Christ. Then comes Easter—the sad time is over. Feast time arrives! Eggs remind us of new life. They were brought to the table colored red for Easter joy. We have new life in Christ, so eat and make merry," says Dad.

"I like that part!" Todd exclaims.

Christ is Risen! He is risen indeed! A blessed Easter to all!

Stewardship

Easter is a moveable feast. Easter isn't on the same calendar date every year in the way that Christmas is always celebrated on December 25. The date for Easter each year always falls on the first Sunday after the first full moon after the Spring equinox. And once you find the date of Easter, everything else finds its place—Good Friday and Maundy Thursday, Ash Wednesday and the Transfiguration, the Ascension of our Lord and Pentecost.

All this is a long way of saying that Easter determines everything. Easter defines everything. It orders not only the entire church year, but it orders our very lives. It defines and gives meaning to our lives, as well to the things that happen in them. And since Easter defines everything, that means it changes everything too. It redefines who we are and where we stand with God and with one another. Easter makes all things new.

Without Easter, Jesus would not be raised from the dead. Without Easter death would still reign, we would still be in our trespasses and sins, and our faith and hope would be in vain. But Jesus is raised from the dead. Easter changes everything. It makes all things new. Therefore, darkness is overcome with light, wrath with peace, fear with hope, angst with rest, sadness with joy, hatred with love, sin with righteousness, and death with life. Easter changes everything, redefines everything, determines everything. Easter makes all things new.

Thus, Easter also changes our attitude about giving. For if God gave us His own Son into death so that we will live, how will He not give us everything else we need? He will, and He does. He provides for us. He even gives us the gifts that we give back to Him for service in the church. Easter demonstrates that we have a God who loves us, a God who provides for us, a God who presses us into His service, a God who has made us new in the death and resurrection of His Son.

For when you give to the church, you pass along those things that God alone has given to you. You pass along the message to others that Easter changes everything and makes all things new, even as it has done this for you. This is not a burden, but pure joy. For God has given you a part in the administration of His kingdom. He provides for the needy through your hands. He ensures that the Gospel is preached and the Sacraments are given out through the work of your hands and in the gifts that you give. And He honors and blesses this work and generosity as it redounds to those around you.

So when you sit down on the first day of the week to make your offering to the place where Easter is proclaimed and where the gifts of Easter are given out, remember: Easter changes everything. It makes all things new. More than that: Easter has changed you and made you new. Because Jesus who was crucified for our transgressions is raised for our justification.

Why? A Layman's Guide to the Liturgy Why are the candles lit from top to bottom and extinguished from bottom to top?

When the candles are lit for the service, the ones closest to the center are lit first, moving outward from there. This is to signify that the source of our life and salvation comes from the altar. The altar not only signifies the sacrifice of Christ for our sins, but is also the place from which the Holy Sacrament is given.

Christ, the light of the world, is truly given to us in the Holy Sacrament, from the altar. Therefore the light of the world truly shines forth from the altar. The lighting of candles outward from the altar (the topmost candles being also the innermost candle, and so forth) signifies this truth. Light goes forth from the altar at the close of the service, the candles are extinguished in reverse order, as a further signification of this: the light returns to the altar whence it came, that we might be reminded that it will come forth from there again and again, to the end of the world

The Time of Easter

This is a time God places special people in our lives--a time when the unchurched see the Christian community celebrate Easter. They see every Christian setting aside time to remember their baptism and practice their Christian lives in preparation for Easter with devotion and care.

It is at this time that you can invite the unchurched to learn about Jesus and to be active in the church. A Christian can take this time to really show an act of kindness which may disarm some of the skepticism, hurt feelings and mistrust some unchurched people might harbor.
